Hello, Ms. Squires:

Just in case you didn't know, and consistent with our mission to promote events throughout the greater Omaha community, CTI22 has been running promotional spots for the Omaha Performing Arts center! Enclosed you'll find:

1. A DVD containing the current OPA spots we've been running since late September 2010: (a) Carol Burnett promo with an audio track but without the inserted video; (b) an OPA promotional spot; and (c) Carol Burnett promo with an inserted video spot.
2. A DVD showing the actual broadcast of "announcements" on the Community Calendar (all at no cost to the community), which includes many events involving the performing arts from throughout metro Omaha:

You may wish to fast-forward to [hours : minutes : seconds]:

3. A DVD featuring CTI22's recent broadcast at the Rose Theater featuring the River City Theatre Organ Society's presentation of Rob Richards.

CTI22 welcomes any opportunity to support the performing arts community, and we'd like to do more! Please feel free to contact me in this regard, or kindly accept my follow-up telephone call.

Have a great day!

Trip Reynolds, General Manager

CTI22 is public-accessible to all of Omaha!

DID YOU KNOW?

As recently reported to the Omaha City Council [<http://www.cti22.org/franchise.htm>], at any given time CTI22's broadcast audience ranges from 13% to 20% of Cox subscribers!

CTI22 broadcasts more of the following content than all other metro area TV stations combined: public service announcements promoting metro Omaha community-based organizations, events, and businesses; more original programming involving elected officials; more original, Omaha-based programming for African-American, Latino, Native American, Asian, and other ethnic groups; and more original, Omaha-based religious programming.
