We broadcast diversity!®

Thomas H. Warren, President/CEO
Urban League of Nebraska, Inc.
3040 Lake Street
Omaha, Nebraska 68111

Hello, Mr. Warren:

Briefly, as a follow-up to our discussion today, the Urban League is not permitted to “sublet” the broadcast of “To Be Equal” to another individual or group. The broadcast of “To Be Equal” is proprietary and exclusive to the named parties in the contract.

Although the Urban League of Nebraska may have a relationship with the Empowerment Network, point of fact, CTI22 does not. In this regard, on several occasions, CTI22 has offered the Empowerment Network an opportunity to broadcast on CTI22, but at their election, they have consistently refused to acknowledge or respond in any way to our inquiries. It is not only unprofessional for the Empowerment Network not to respond to our inquires, but even more unprofessional (and arguably, deceitful and manipulative) for the Empowerment Network to piggyback “free” off of your broadcast to circumvent CTI22’s revenue streams.

Your interest to provide the Empowerment Network with an opportunity to address allegations that you perceive as erroneous does not pertain to our contract. In this regard, the Empowerment Network has its own “in house” publication to address these concerns, Revive! Magazine. An effort, whether intentional or not, by the Empowerment Network to prostitute the greater value of CTI22’s broadcast signal will not be permitted. CTI22 consistently and immediately reaches more people than the entire print-run of Revive! Magazine every day . . . all day . . . all year long!

CTI22 will consider any subsequent efforts to specifically promote the efforts of the Empowerment Network or to exclusively broadcast programs that specifically recognize members of the Empowerment Network as a contract violation, which will immediately prompt a thirty-(30) day notice to terminate our agreement. In hopes of continuing a positive relationship, we look forward to working with you cooperatively in this regard.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Have a great day!

Sincerely,

Trip Reynolds
General Manager
